

Insurance,
FIRE INSURANCE!
BY
John Muir.
SECURITY FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 21 Wall street, New York.
Sub-Capital.....$500,000
This Company does business on the mutual plan, returning the premiums paid by its members to the profits of the Company.
PHOENIX FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 68 Wall street, New York.....$250,000
Capital and Surplus.....$250,000
MONTAUK FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 21 Wall street, New York.....$150,000
Capital and Surplus.....$150,000
ATLANTIC FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 21 Wall street, New York.....$50,000
Capital and Surplus.....$50,000
PARK FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 21 Wall street, New York.....$250,000
Capital and Surplus.....$250,000
THE underaged Agent of the above reliable Companies, will do a general Fire Insurance business. Losses, usual, promptly adjusted. He submits a return of the patronage of his former friends to those of the public generally.—JOHN MUIR,
OF THE SECURITY FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

GUTHRIE
INSURANCE AND TRUST CO.
CHARTERED CAPITAL $500,000
PAID IN AND SECURED $500,000
THIS COMPANY IS now organized and ready to receive premiums on all forms of FIRE and MARINE INSURANCES, on liberal terms. Southern Business Men and Business Women.—LOUISVILLE, KY.
ANDREW GRAHAM, President.

MUTUAL INSURANCE.
PEOPLES INSURANCE COMPANY,
OFFICES IN LOUISVILLE, KY.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO, AND CHICAGO,
Agents in all the principal cities, and on all the usual modes of inland transportation; on land and water. For information and rates, apply to the Agents or to the Home Office, Louisville, KY.

FRANKLIN INSURANCE COMP'TY.,
OF LOUISVILLE, KY.
OFFICE: corner Main and Bedford streets, second story of Newcomb's Building, across from Main Street. Tel. #45.

THIS COMPANY continues to make insurance on Ships, Steamboats, and their Cargoes, on all kinds of Freight, and on Passengers, including Steamboats, building and repair, and Houses and Condominiums.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, President.

DIRECTORS:

R. H. Wagner, John A. Bradfield,
Wm. S. Stoddard, W. G. French,
J. A. McNeill, J. T. Moore,
John C. Carden, Robert Murrell.

JOHN T. DRAKE, Vice-President.

DIRECTORS:

DAILY COURIER.

LOUISVILLE.

THURSDAY MORNING JUNE 28.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
Of Kentucky.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GENERAL JOE LANE,
Of Oregon.

The Campaign in Kentucky.

The contest for the next Presidency is now made up. The candidates chosen to represent the principles enunciated in the platforms upon which they respectively stand are before the people. From among them, the Chief Executive officer of the Union for four years from the 4th of March next will be chosen. The people of the nation, the true sovereigns, whose will is law, and upon whose good sense, love of country, intelligence, virtue, and capacity for self-government depend the hopes of mankind, will determine by their action at the polls, in the exercise of the highest privilege and dearest right of a freeman, whether those hopes are to be placed, whether the equality of the States is to be maintained, whether the Constitution is to be preserved, whether the Union is to be perpetuated.

LINCOLN and HAMIL represent the most extreme Northern sectionism, which proposes to deprive the slaveholding States of their Constitutional rights in the common Territories by Congressional legislation. DOUGLAS and JOHNSON represent the wing of the Black Republicans which proposes to permit the same end to be accomplished by means of Territorial Squatter Sovereignty. BRECKINRIDGE and LANE represent that truimphant conservatism which will stand by the Constitution and by the rights of all the States, and will maintain and abide by the time-honored, just, and Constitutional principles "inscribed upon the banner under which we stand." The other two will pursue a like course. It is by no means certain that all nine, to-wit: Mason, White, Speed, Reed, Wood, Helm, Moore, Spalding, and Sharp, who assisted at the nomination of Douglass, will support him. Then, of the Kentucky delegation, thirteen are for BUCHANAN and LANE; and the remaining two are for BRECKINRIDGE. The two electors for the State at large, LINCOLN and CRAVEN, espouse the principles maintained by the present Democratic Administration, by the Democratic members of both houses of Congress, by the true friends of Constitutional liberty all over the Union, emphatically, directly, and most unequivocally endorsed, approved, and affirmed by the Democratic people of Kentucky in their last State Convention assembled, and sustained by the decision of the highest legal tribunal in the nation. With large numbers of subscribers at almost every post office in Kentucky, circulating largely in each Southern and Western State, with many readers throughout the entire Union, and with a grave responsibility for good or evil thus resting upon it, the COURIER could not if it would, and certainly would not if it could, remain a passive spectator in such an hour of peril to the country. It has entered upon the canvass with its accustomed promptness and zeal; and with all the powers of argument or of entreaty at its command, by appeals to the reason, the judgment, and the patriotism of the people, it will advocate the election of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE until their success places the future of the country upon a safe and sure basis, or their defeat shatters the nation in gloom.

The COURIER will throw all its influence in favor of the ticket which is at the head of its columns. It will support, with its whole soul, mind, and strength, the representatives of the principles for which it has contended since the issue soon to be settled was thrust upon the country by the erroneous course of STEPHEN A. DOUGLASS—principles maintained by the present Democratic Administration, by the Democratic members of both houses of Congress, by the true friends of Constitutional liberty all over the Union, emphatically, directly, and most unequivocally endorsed, approved, and affirmed by the Democratic people of Kentucky in their last State Convention assembled, and sustained by the decision of the highest legal tribunal in the nation. With large numbers of subscribers at almost every post office in Kentucky, circulating largely in each Southern and Western State, with many readers throughout the entire Union, and with a grave responsibility for good or evil thus resting upon it, the COURIER could not if it would, and certainly would not if it could, remain a passive spectator in such an hour of peril to the country. It has entered upon the canvass with its accustomed promptness and zeal; and with all the powers of argument or of entreaty at its command, by appeals to the reason, the judgment, and the patriotism of the people, it will advocate the election of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE until their success places the future of the country upon a safe and sure basis, or their defeat shatters the nation in gloom.

This THE COURIER will do; and this is but to discharge a plain and simple duty. There is another duty which rests upon those who are enlisted with us for the war.

The "sober second thought" of the people is always right. It is only necessary to convince their judgment to secure their co-operation.

This will be done, in the coming canvass, to some extent, by the many able and eloquent men who will address them on the hustings in behalf of truth, justice, and the Constitution."

But the press is the great lever of public sentiment. The newspapers will have the real work to perform.

The COURIER has never made an appeal to its political friends to increase its circulation. Its subscription, great as it is, is entirely voluntary—a substantial tribute to its merits as a newspaper and to its political orthodoxy. Now, when the combined forces of a reckless, unscrupulous, selfish, and sectional Opposition are combined against those with whom we act—when no means will be tried to mislead, deceive, and pervert public sentiment—when the whole country is to be flooded with campaign documents, false newspapers, and the most villainous misrepresentations of men and measures, we earnestly request the friends of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE to make an earnest effort to counteract the appliances of their opponents by sending the COURIER broad-cast over the country. Oaths may be formed at once, with but little exertion, in every neighborhood and at every post office in the West and South; and, if proper interest is taken, such interest as the emergency may be expected to excite, names will come in upon us by fifties and by hundreds, from all portions of this and of the neighboring States; and the circulation of additional tens of thousands of such paper, as, with the facilities at our command, we can and will make the COURIER, will do more to secure the common end and to insure a common success than all other means together.

A brief prospectus may be found in another column, to which we beg leave to ask the attention of our friends.

"It's not for Mr. Douglass, but for pride—the principle of Squatter Sovereignty, no protection, no compensation, no redress, in a country which divided the Democratic party. Oh, no! They are honest, self-sacrificing men, willing to die, if need be, on the altar of principle! Yet, after they had accomplished the work projected, they showed how sincere they were, by nominating for Vice President Mr. Fitzpatrick, who, within the last six weeks, voted for the Senate Caucus resolutions, which repealed Squatter Sovereignty, and declared for protection.

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the Squatter Sovereignty papers were enthusiastic in his praise. But he declined the doubtful honor, and the Douglasses were the ones to receive the reward? The reason? Of course, a step so important, was taken in a formal manner. Will his letter of declination be published? And then, by whom, and upon what authority, was his successor on the ticket chosen?

The Episcopalian of Alabama, was nominated by the Douglasses, without a dissenting voice, for Vice President. Notwithstanding he had voted for a "slave code" and against their prodoctrine, the

